Todd advanced to semifinalist standing the National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Students. As a result he received a $500 Merit Scholarship from Transco Energy Company, based in Houston, Texas.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Scruggs of Appomattox, Todd will attend the College of William and Mary to study Engineering.

Vivian Renee Seay is a recipient of an Air Force ROTC Scholarship. These scholarships are awarded on a national competitive basis to young men and women who are planning to enter Air Force ROTC as college freshman. The scholarship pays for college tuition and academic expenses plus a subsistence allowance of $100 a month. Scholastic standing, test scores, leadership ability, physical fitness and motivation are key factors in the selection process. This four-year scholarship carries an annual approximate value of $3,000, for a minimum four-year total of $12,000.

Vivian has been selected by the ACHS faculty to receive the "Good Citizen Award" presented by the Blue Ridge Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Vivian receives this award through her demonstration during high school of the qualities of dependability, leadership, service and patriotism.

Vivian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Seay of Appomattox. Vivian will be attending the University of Virginia next year to study Systems Engineering.

Audrey Ladell Wright has been awarded the Ruth E. Cowan Memorial Scholarship of $200 which is offered to an ACHS senior who seeks additional training in the English discipline. Priority consideration is given to those entering journalism or the mass media. The recipient must possess qualities of leadership, demonstrated by participation in school and community activities, be ambitious, and conscientious.

LaDell is also being presented a $200 scholarship by the Times-Virginian newspaper. This scholarship was created to recognize an ACHS senior for contributions made to high school journalism through participation on the newspaper or annual staff.

LaDell will be attending Virginia Tech where she will receive a Powell Academic Scholarship of $1,000. This award is based upon high scholastic achievement.

The granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bowman Wright of Appomattox, LaDell plans to major in Journalism at Virginia Tech.
